

Privacy Policy and Marketing Preferences

Superseded 25th May 2018

We are strongly committed to protecting the privacy of our customers as well as to respecting the Data Protection Acts 1984 and 1998. Throughout the Net we want to contribute to providing a safe and secure environment for consumers, and in particular, to ensure that your information is protected.

The purpose of this Devon Valley privacy policy is to inform you, as a welcome visitor to Devon Valley Holiday Park, what kinds of information we may gather about you when you visit the Devon Valley web site, how we may use that information, whether we disclose it to anyone, and the choices you have regarding our use of, and your ability to correct, the information. Finally, please note that this policy applies only to Devon Valley web site, and not to the web sites of other companies or organisations to which we may link.

Information About You

Sometimes, we may specifically ask you for information about you when you sign up to our online mailing list, or make an online bookinglike. We will need certain information -- such as your name, Internet email address, billing address etc. We may also use that information to let you know of additional offers and services about which you might be interested. You can easily choose not to receive such information if you don't want to by filling in this brief form on the right.

Disclosure

We do not use or disclose information about your individual visits to Devon Valley or information that you may give us, such as your name, address, email address or telephone number, for use by any outside companies. But as we mention above, we may use this information to send you offerings that may interest you.
